PROJECT ZERO CAR SHOW

Sundae on Monday

Manalapan, NJ - The Manalapan-Englishtown Community Alliance to Prevent Alcoholism and Drug Abuse is hosting its Annual Project ZERO Car Show on Monday, August 20, 2018 from 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm at the Manalapan High School. The event will offer free Ice Cream Sundae's to the first 500 participants and attendees. During the event, the Alliance will present a short program and allow the community to come together to remember the people we have lost to addiction. The Alliance will have information about resources to help those still suffering addiction and other educational and informational resources focused on prevention. In addition to the free Sundaes, there will be refreshments and additional sundaes on site for purchase.

Local, state and national newspapers post daily, stories of drug arrests and responses to overdoses - with both successful and unsuccessful efforts of saving a person. Additionally there are news stories of State and National efforts to address the over-prescribing of pain medicine. The news seems endless and the ability for any one person to make a difference seems beyond reach. The Manalapan-Englishtown Community Alliance to Prevent Alcoholism and Drug Abuse ("Alliance") doesn't want to give in to stagnation on this issue. Instead, the Alliance wants to mobilize a community based effort to fight this scourge and empower the members of the community to be pre-emptive on this issue and employ strategies and efforts to prevent alcohol and drug abuse.
